WICKREMASINGHE'S "PATENT LOCK-BAR" made by W. LUCY & Co., Ltd., Oxford, and fitted to their standard steel book-stacks.

This device keeps the books in position and the lock controls the access to special and valuable books. It can be fitted to any kind of wooden or steel book-case or stack. For particulars, apply to the above firm.

PREFACE.

THIS is a catalogue of nearly all the books of the library of the late SIR WILLIAM W. HUNTER, so well known to the many visitors to "Oaken Holt," his house at Cumnor. The books are on subjects as varied and interesting as the writings of that distinguished author and literary critic. His Indian duties and his connection with the editorial staff of the Times resulted in this collection of books which supplied him with up-to-date information. There are 778 works on India and the East and 724 on subjects of general interest, in all about 3,000 volumes. They include rare and valuable encyclopædias, dictionaries, Indian Gazetteers, Government Reports, and other standard works such as a complete set of the National Biography, Sacred Books of the East, besides copies of his own numerous publications and many rare and popular works on India and the East, as well as first editions of some important works of modern authors.

The owners would prefer to sell this valuable library en bloc if possible, and are therefore prepared to consider reasonable offers if made within the next few months.

It is desired also to dispose of several of the handsome carved oak bookcases belonging to the library, and, if not already sold, the owners would be willing to consider an offer for them from the purchaser of the library.

Great care has been taken in the compilation of the catalogue, but the owners cannot hold themselves responsible for any errors which may have inadvertently crept in.

The books are at present in Oxford, and all communications regarding them should be addressed to
